OOF: 261132L Jun 90

- ① [REDACTED] is carrying a large quantity of contraband in a false bottom in the hull of the vessel. The contraband is tightly packed between support ribs running lengthwise along the keel (the contraband is almost incorporated-- seemingly part of-- the hull?). The space which comprises the false bottom is approximately 8 inches deep (high). The bottom of the hull has an anomolous downward bulge slightly forward of amidships. The false bottom of the hull is located in the center of the vessel. The contraband is located toward the stern (rear) and starboard (right) portion of that compartment. SEE ATTACHED DIAGRAMS.

SG1A

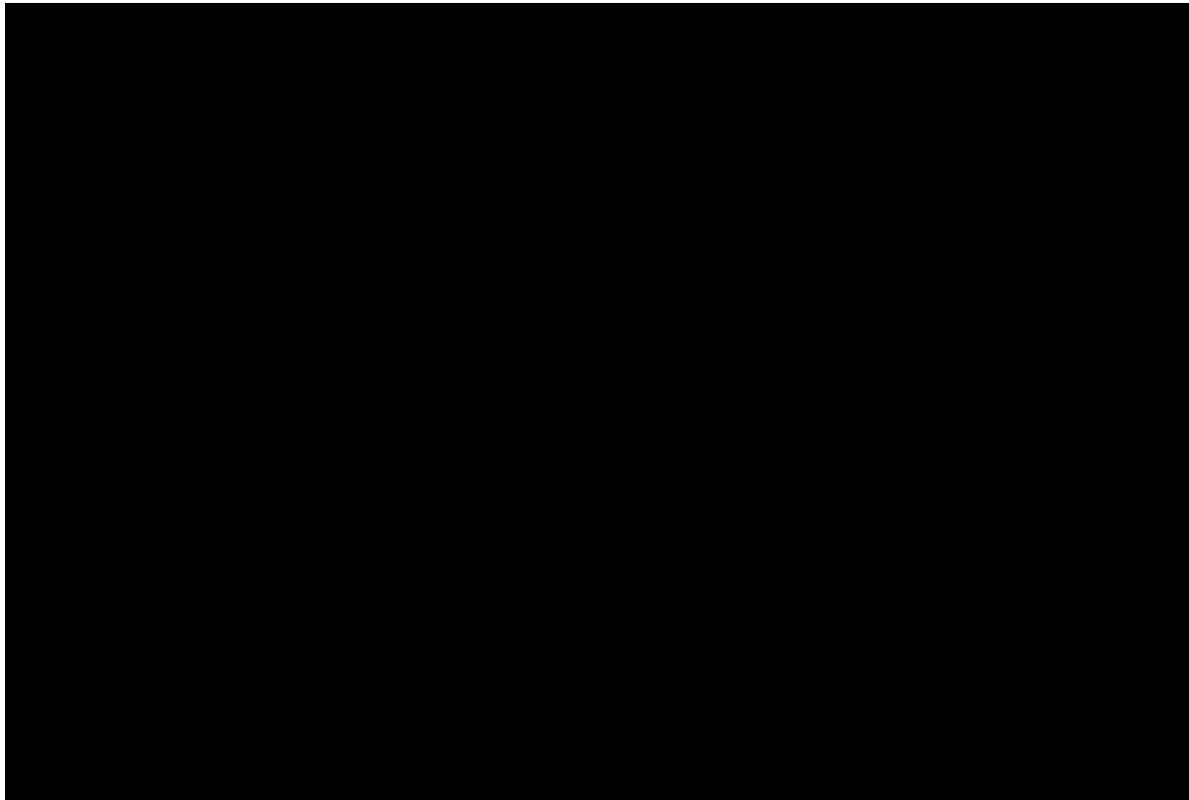

OOC: 261330L Jun 90

- ② [REDACTED] currently has cocaine on board. The cocaine is amidships, down under something (exact meaning uncertain). The contraband may be under cardboard boxes, cards, candies, or DOLLIES (this term surfaced phonetically).

The vessel has been dirty in the past and there is something different about the way this operation is being/has been conducted. This concept is associated with going down under (the first time they hid contraband down under something?). There is the association of a sewer or seaway or saway (phonetics) with this contraband (perhaps hidden in the bilge/sewer/storage tank?) The contraband is not, repeat not, hidden in an area where the integrity of the vessel must be compromised to remove it (it is hidden, but removing it will not destroy the vessel).

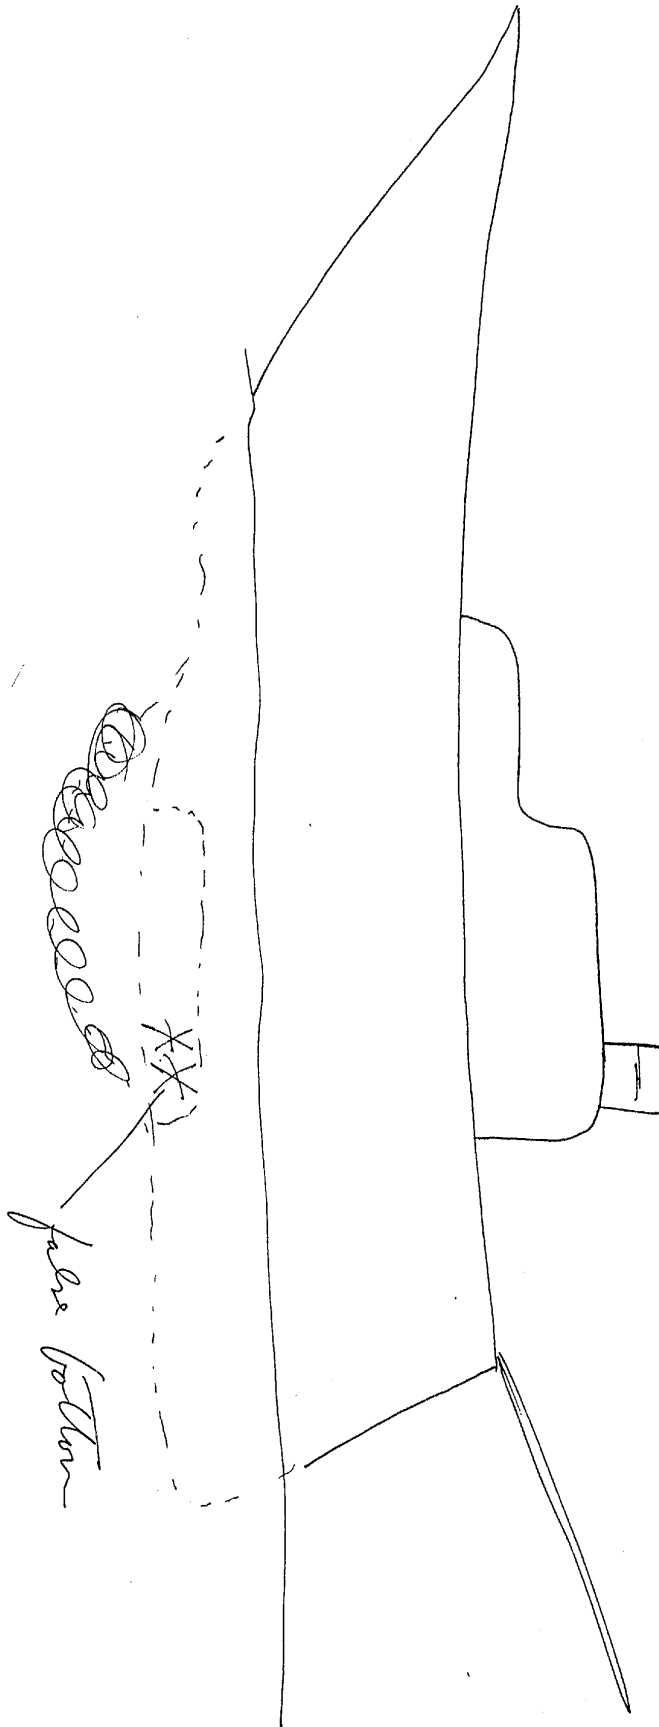

The captain of the vessel is considered a big man with brown hair. He likes his vessel. He is known as a/the phantom drug runner. He may be a US citizen.

Concealment does not involve things that ~~are not~~ specifically held the vessel together, because the captain likes his ship.

All in all, this was a simple business transaction for the captain. ~~It~~ It was accomplished through word of mouth.

56 1/2 The vessel contains a large quantity of contraband on board. It is located midship within a false bottom. This area has supports i.e. ribs running longitudinally. The contraband is tightly packed w/i this area.

The odd outside profile or outline of the bottom (hull) of this vessel is not typical of the style of boat its "above water" profile would indicate. ~~It is almost as if it has an extend~~ It bulges slightly downward ~~at~~ in the bottom hull.

The target is tightly packed and feels almost incorporated w/i the hull hull. The space is somewhere between 6 and 8" deep (high)

FILE NUMBER: 900035/900626 SG1A

TARGET: VESSEL KNOWN AS [REDACTED]

EEI:

1. ARE NARCOTICS CONCEALED ON BOARD VESSEL? Yes, cocaine.

2. IF YES, PROVIDE:

A. LOCATION ON BOARD + how CONCEALED:

CONTRABAND IS LOCATED MIDSHIPS "DOWN UNDER."

Something will have to be taken apart to get to contraband.

CONTRABAND MAY BE UNDER CARDBOARD BOXES (THIS MAY BE WHAT HAS TO BE TAKEN APART). CONTRABAND MAY BE NEAR, IN OR UNDER CARDS, CANDIES AND "DOWIES" (which phonetically surfaced).

B. HOW CONCEALED

See A.

C. ANY DESCRIPTIVE INFORMATION WHICH WOULD ASSIST DETECTION/RETRIEVAL.

SG1A

[REDACTED] HAS BEEN DIRTY IN THE PAST, HOWEVER, THIS TIME SOMETHING "DIFFERENT" IN THE WAY THE OPERATION HAS BEEN CONDUCTED. ASSOCIATED WITH THIS IS THE CONCEPT OF "GOING DOWN UNDER."

D. THE LETTERS OR WORDS "SEWER/SAWER/SEWAY/SAWAY" ARE SOMEHOW ASSOCIATED WITH THE LOCATION OF THE CONTRABAND ON BOARD.

SG1A

- [REDACTED] ~~current~~ currently has contraband in the form of cocaine on board.
- The contraband is ~~in~~ mid-ships, Down, Under and layered.
- The contraband may be under brown cardboard boxes
- The contraband may be near, in, or under cards, carded and the word "Dollies" phonetically surfaced.

SG1A - The [REDACTED] has known to be dirty in the past however this time there has been something "different" in the way the operation has been conducted. Associated with this is the concept of "going Down Under."

SG1A The [REDACTED] has a Captain who is considered ~~as~~ a big man with brown hair. He may have a beard or he may have worn one in the recent past. He is known as a "~~father phatton~~" phantom drug runner." He may be a U.S. citizen.
